NOTE

ALTHOUGH, in bringing our Index up to date, the ideal would have been to incorporate the matter of this Second Supplement, together with its predecessor and the original volume, in a single book, its fulfilment would have proved far too expensive. So this Third Index volume is offered to the public as a distinct entity, embracing the period from January, 1922, to December, 1932. The original division into "Subjects" and "Authors" has been preserved. Most of the smaller items, classed as "Miscellanea" (M), are entered only under "Subjects," whilst Stories (S) and Verse (V) are listed under "Authors" alone. In this latter division, the order is chronological, the year being printed first in heavy type, so that each month mentioned should be referred to the next preceding year.

The former Index Volumes, No. 1. 1864—1908 (4s. 6d. n.), and the First Supplement, 1909—1921 (3s. 6d. n.) are still in stock.

SUBJECTS

M = Miscellanea I.; S = Story; V = Verse.
